GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Advised Long Lake Management Holdings on $1 Billion Senior Secured Notes Offering

Firm News | July 13, 2026

Gibson Dunn advised Gaia Purchaser, Inc., an indirect subsidiary of Long Lake Management Holdings, Inc., on its offering of $1 billion in aggregate principal amount of its 7.625% Senior Secured Notes due 2033. The offering is part of the financing for Long Lake's proposed acquisition of Global Business Travel Group, Inc.

The Gibson Dunn capital markets team includes partners Doug Horowitz and Atma Kabad, of counsel Marie Kwon, and associates Allan Jeanjaquet and Lachlan McLeod. Partner Dean Masuda and associates Eric Olson, Julia Sweitzer, and Nathan Halaney advised on finance aspects.

Related People

Doug Horowitz

Atma Kabad

Marie M. Kwon

Allan R. Jeanjaquet

Lachlan McLeod

Dean Masuda

Eric R. Olson

Julia M. Sweitzer

Nathan Halaney

Related Capabilities

Capital Markets

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com