

JEFFREY D. DINTZER

Mass and Toxic Tort Defense

Mr. Dintzer has defended clients facing a variety of mass tort/toxic tort claims. Representative matters include:

- ▶ In re Redlands Tort Litigation – Toxic tort lawsuit involving over 800 plaintiffs, who claim personal injuries and property damage resulting from alleged exposure to chemicals in drinking water.
- ▶ In re Burbank Environmental Litigation – Represented Lockheed Martin in federal and state litigation involving alleged community exposure to contaminants released to the air and groundwater during 50 years of aircraft manufacture at the Burbank "Skunk Works" and related facilities. The cases settled for nominal amounts (i.e. less than plaintiff counsel's hard costs).

Mr. Dintzer has also published several articles about toxic tort defense, including:
