GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Advised Aurora Capital Partners on Acquisition of Anova

Firm News | January 26, 2026

Gibson Dunn advised Aurora Capital Partners, a leading middle-market private equity firm, on its acquisition of Anova, the leading global provider of Industrial Internet of Things solutions to remotely monitor and manage industrial assets for the industrial gas, propane, fuels, lubricants, and chemicals industries.

Our corporate team was led by partner Ari Lanin and included associates Jonathan Lee, Suji Han, and Valy Menendez. Partners Aaron Adams and Tom Brower and associates Maithili Bagaria and Ruoqi Wei advised on financing. Partner Dora Arash and associates Bree Gong and Eugene Wei-En Woo advised on tax aspects. Partner Sean Feller and associate Akiva Reich advised on benefits. Partner Daniel Angel, of counsel Scott Roe, and associate Nate Hancock advised on IP aspects.

Related People

Ari Lanin

Jonathan H. Lee

Suji Han

Valy Menendez

Aaron F. Adams

Tom Brower

Maithili Bagaria

Ruoqi Wei

Dora R. Arash

Eugene Wei-En Woo

Sean C. Feller

Akiva Reich

Daniel Angel

R. Scott Roe

Nate S. Hancock

Related Capabilities

Mergers and Acquisitions

Private Equity

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com