GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Advised Conflicts Committee of Board of Directors on $3 Billion Transformation of Hess Midstream LP

Firm News | October 7, 2026

Gibson Dunn represented the Conflicts Committee of the board of directors in negotiating all aspects of the complex $3 billion independence transformation of Hess Midstream LP.

The firm's corporate team was led by partners Hillary Holmes and Gerry Spedale and included associates Ashley Whittington, Mona Kalantar, Caroline Bakewell, Ethan Anderson, Dustin Leenhouts, and Joe Vercher. Partner Rahul Vashi and associates Mike Sellner and Muriel Hague advised on oil and gas aspects. Partner Shalla Prichard advised on financing; senior counsel Gregory Nelson and associate Abram Dorrough on tax aspects; partners Krista Hanvey and Gina Hancock and associate Lucy Hong on benefits; partner Daniel Angel and associate Jacqueline Rios on IP aspects; partner Tory Lauterbach and associate Jess Rollinson on energy regulation aspects; partner Geoffrey Walter and associate Gary DePalo on governance aspects; and associate Monica Murphy on environmental aspects.

Related People

Hillary H. Holmes

Gerry Spedale

Ashley Whittington

Mona Kalantar

Caroline Bakewell

Ethan Anderson

Dustin Leenhouts

Joe Vercher

Rahul D. Vashi

Muriel Hague

Shalla Prichard

Gregory V. Nelson

Abram Dorrough

Krista P. Hanvey

Gina Hancock

Lucy Hong

Daniel Angel

Jacqueline E. Rios

Tory Lauterbach

Jess Rollinson

Geoffrey E. Walter

Gary R. DePalo

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com

Monica M. Murphy

Related Capabilities

Mergers and Acquisitions

Oil and Gas

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com