Bethany Saul is an associate in the Litigation Department. She represents clients in commercial disputes across a range of practice areas, including securities litigation, complex commercial litigation, and M&A litigation. Bethany has considerable trial experience, including arbitral hearings and bench trials in federal and state courts. She is admitted to practice in California and New York.

Bethany maintains an active pro-bono practice, which was recognized in December 2023, when she won the Frank Wheat Memorial Award for her commitment to pro-bono work. Bethany is also actively involved in diversity and mentorship programming, serving as Co-Chair of the Women's LGBTQ+ committee. She served on the Junior Board of Legal Services NYC for three years before moving to Los Angeles.

Bethany earned her B.A. from Boston University, summa cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, and her J.D. from New York University School of Law, where she was a research assistant in both administrative law to Professor David Kamin and federal civil procedure to Professor Arthur R. Miller, for whom she revised the Wright & Miller Federal Practice & Procedure treatise. She served as an extern to the Honorable Judge J. Paul Oetken of the Southern District of New York.
