Aliya Crochetiere

Associate Attorney

acrochetiere@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 415.393.4608

San Francisco

Aliya Crochetiere is an associate in the San Francisco office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. She currently practices in the firm's Litigation Department.

Aliya earned her J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School where she graduated cum laude. During her time in law school, she served as the Managing Editor of the Michigan Technology Law Review and as a senior supervisor for the Environmental Crimes Project. Aliya was also a member of the Worker's Rights Clinic, the Environmental Law and Sustainability Clinic, and the Henry M. Campbell Moot Court Competition. The University of Michigan Law School granted her the Pro Bono Award for her commitment to pro bono work during law school. She was also the recipient of the Stephen and Faith Brown Scholarship and the Dean's Merit Scholarship. Prior to law school, Aliya graduated from the University of California, Berkeley with High Distinction with both a B.A. in Society & Environment and a B.S. in Geography.

She is admitted to practice in the State of California.

Capabilities

Litigation Environmental
Labor and Employment
Law Firm Defense
Real Estate Disputes
White Collar Defense and Investigations

Credentials

Education

University of Michigan - 2022 Juris Doctor
University of California - Berkeley - 2018 Bachelor of Arts
University of California - Berkeley - 2018 Bachelor of Science

Admissions

California Bar

2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved.
For other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com

GIBSON DUNN