GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Advises Catchment Capital on Majority Investment in Fidus Systems

Firm News | September 30, 2025

Gibson Dunn is advising Catchment Capital on its majority investment in Fidus Systems, a leading provider of advanced electronic and embedded system design services.

Our corporate team is led by partner Alexander Fine and includes associates Jonathan Abrams and Tiffany Mickel. Partner Darius Mehraban and of counsel Jason Durschlag are advising on debt financing. Partner Matt Donnelly is advising on tax aspects. Partner Michael Collins is advising on benefits. Partner Lindsay Paulin is advising on government contracts.

Related People

Alexander D. Fine

Jonathan Abrams

Tiffany Mickel

Darius Mehraban

Michael Collins

Lindsay M. Paulin

Related Capabilities

Mergers and Acquisitions

Private Equity

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com