Michael Bopp and Roscoe Jones, Jr. Named Top Lobbyists 2022

Accolades | December 7, 2022

The Hill

The Hill named Washington, D.C. partners Michael Bopp and Roscoe Jones Jr. among its Top Lobbyists 2022 list, which "honors the corporate lobbyists, hired guns, association leaders and grassroots activists who leveraged their expertise and connections to make a difference in the nation's capital this year." The list was published on December 7, 2022. Michael Bopp is Co-Chair of the firm's Public Policy Practice Group and Chair of the Congressional Investigations Group. He brings his extensive government and private-sector experience to help clients navigate through the most difficult crises, often involving investigations as well as public policy and media challenges. His practice focuses on congressional investigations, internal corporate investigations, and other government investigations. He also advises clients on public policy and regulatory consulting in a variety of fields, and managing and responding to major crises involving multiple government agencies and branches. Roscoe Jones Jr. is Co-Chair of the firm's Public Policy Practice Group. He has almost a decade of Capitol Hill experience advising three U.S. Senators and a member of Congress and political experience in the executive branch. Drawing upon that experience, his practice focuses on promoting and protecting clients' interests before the U.S. Congress and the Administration, including providing a range of public policy services to clients such as strategic counseling, advocacy, coalition building, political intelligence gathering, substantive policy expertise, legislative drafting, and message development.
