GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Represented Veritas Capital and Portfolio Company Finalsite in Acquisition of RevTrak

Firm News | October 9, 2026

Gibson Dunn represented Veritas Capital and its portfolio company Finalsite — a leading K–12 platform for school engagement, enrollment, and communications — in the acquisition of RevTrak, a leading digital payments provider serving more than 13,000 schools across the U.S.

The firm's corporate team was led by partners John Pollack and Lilit Voskanyan and included of counsel John Kim and associates George Hang and Jack Medosch. Partner Michael Collins advised on employee compensation and benefits, partner Meghan Hungate and associate Jacqueline Rios advised on IP aspects, partner Daniel Angel advised on transition services, and partner Jason Cabral and associate Paul Yu advised on financial regulatory matters.
