Brendan D. Galloway is an associate in the New York office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. He is a member of the Firm's Real Estate Practice Group.

Brendan represents a variety of clients, including prominent private equity funds, portfolio companies, REITs and publicly listed companies, in matters relating to the acquisition, financing, development, management, and disposition of commercial real estate. He has experience advising on transactions involving industrial, office, hotel, multifamily, retail, and life-science assets. Brendan also advises clients on real estate matters in connection with mergers and acquisitions and public-to-private transactions.

Brendan earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 2017 where he was the managing editor of the Journal of Business Law. He graduated from the University of Rochester with a double major in Political Science and Piano Performance in 2012.

Before joining Gibson Dunn, Brendan was a real estate associate in the New York offices of Latham & Watkins LLP and Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP.

Brendan is admitted to practice in the State of New York.
