Shukie Grossman is a partner in the New York office of Gibson Dunn. He is Global Chair of the Investment Funds Practice Group.

Shukie's practice focuses on the formation of private investment funds, including domestic and offshore funds focused on buyout, growth equity, infrastructure, real estate, credit and other investment strategies. In addition to fund formation, he has significant experience advising on the acquisition and sale of minority and majority stakes in fund sponsors, as well as spin-outs of fund businesses and management teams. He also advises investment firms on their operation, regulation and internal governance arrangements.

Shukie's representative clients include Blue Owl Digital Infrastructure, Eldridge ACRE Partners, HighPost Capital, ICONIQ Capital, Leonard Green & Partners, Meridiam Infrastructure, Motive Partners, RXR, Sole Source Capital and Stockdale Capital Partners.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Shukie was a partner at Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP. He spent several years in the Division of Investment Management of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Shukie is consistently recognized by Chambers USA, Chambers Global, The Legal 500, The International Financial Law Review, Best Lawyers in America® and Legal Media Group's Expert Guides Guide to the World's Leading Banking, Finance and Transactional Lawyers. He is described in Chambers as a "world-class funds lawyer" who is "smart and highly knowledgeable in respect to fundraising and is a goal-oriented, pragmatic problem-solver," and "knows the market so well and has seen so many complicated things." One client notes "his combination of commercial advice and creativity is what sets him apart. We view him as a partner." Law360 has named Shukie an "MVP" in Fund Formation and he is recognized in Lexology Index: Private Funds 2027 as a Tier 1 Global Elite Thought Leader for Private Funds – Formation.

Shukie is a member of the Private Investment Funds Forum and was previously a member of the adjunct faculty at Columbia Law School where he taught a course on private investment funds.

Shukie received his Juris Doctor from Fordham University Law School and his Bachelor of Arts degree from Yeshiva University.
