Jeff Gurley is a litigation associate in the Dallas office of Gibson Dunn.

Before joining the firm, Jeff served as a law clerk to the Honorable E. Grady Jolly of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit and to the Honorable Sean D. Jordan of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas. He also interned for the Honorable Joan L. Larsen of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.

Jeff received his Juris Doctor from the University of Michigan Law School, where he served as president of the Federalist Society and as a research assistant to Professor Christopher J. Walker. He was awarded the Irving Stenn Jr. Award in recognition of his leadership and contributions to the Michigan Law community. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in political science from Washington University in St. Louis, where he was an all-conference linebacker on the football team.

Jeff is a member of the Texas and Missouri bars and is admitted to practice before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit and the U.S. District Courts for the Northern and Eastern Districts of Texas.
