Juliette Michaud is an associate in the Paris office of Gibson Dunn and member of the firm's Litigation, International Arbitration, and Business Restructuring Practice Groups.

She represents a diverse range of clients — companies, debtors, and creditors — in connection with pre-insolvency mechanisms such as ad hoc mandates and conciliation proceedings, as well as formal insolvency procedures including safeguard, accelerated safeguard, reorganization, and liquidation. Her practice also includes insolvency-related litigation, including disputes among classes of affected parties, grace period petitions, and claims admission disputes.

Juliette also advises clients in civil and commercial litigation matters.

Admitted to the Paris Bar in 2026, she holds a Master's degree in Business Administration and Liquidation of Distressed Companies (ALED) from the University Paris I – Panthéon Sorbonne, obtained in 2023. During her academic training, she spent one year working alongside court-appointed insolvency practitioners, gaining hands-on experience in distressed company situations and restructuring processes.

She is fluent in French and English.
