Tiffany Mickel is a corporate associate in the Washington, D.C. office of Gibson Dunn.

She received her Juris Doctor from the University of Virginia and graduated with Honors from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. At the University of Virginia School of Law, Tiffany served as Editor-in-Chief of the Virginia Law Review and Articles Editor for the Virginia Sports & Entertainment Law Journal. As a law student, she interned at the United States District Court for the District of Columbia and the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. Tiffany was also the recipient of the James C. Slaughter Honor Award, one of four graduation honors awarded by a full vote of the law faculty to an outstanding member of the graduating class.

Prior to law school, Tiffany was a consultant within the Strategy and Consulting division of Accenture Federal Services, where she provided technology, business strategy, and management consulting services. After law school, she clerked for the Honorable Carl E. Stewart of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit.

She is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia.
