Palo Alto

Sarabeth Westwood is an associate in the Palo Alto office of Gibson Dunn and a member of the firm's Real Estate Practice Group. Her practice covers a broad range of complex commercial real estate transactions, with deep experience in joint ventures, financings, development, acquisitions and dispositions and leasing. She represents developers, operators, investors, and borrowers in connection with a wide variety of real estate assets, including office, residential, industrial, and mixed-use properties.

She completed a six-month secondment in 2022 with one of the most prominent real estate developers in the United States, known for large-scale, mixed-use urban projects.

Sarabeth received her Juris Doctor, with honors, in 2015 from the University of Chicago Law School, where she was a recipient of the Rex Lee Scholarship. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Classics, magna cum laude, in 2011 from Davidson College, where she graduated Phi Beta Kappa, received the W. Kendrick Pritchett Award in Classics and was a two-year captain of the Division I volleyball team.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Sarabeth was a real estate associate at Baker Botts LLP in Houston, Texas. She is admitted to practice law in the State of California and the State of Texas.
