GIBSON DUNN

Litigator of the Week Runners-Up and Shout-Outs

Accolades | November 21, 2025

The AmLaw Litigation Daily

Here's one last shout-out to a Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher team led by partners Miguel Estrada, Ted Boutrous and Katie Townsend, who have been representing National Public Radio and certain member stations in a challenge to an executive order aimed at cutting the plaintiffs' federal funding because of news coverage and programming the Trump Administration has claimed is biased. The team this week reached a settlement with the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, one of the defendants in the suit, which will provide $35.96 million in grant funding to the plaintiffs for public radio infrastructure—the full amount CPB previously agreed to. CPB also agreed not to enforce the challenged executive order unless required by a court. The Gibson Dunn team includes partner Michael Dore, counsel Sophia Brill and associates Eric Brooks, Connor Mui, Ellie Schwietering and Tate Rosenblatt.

To read the complete article visit Law.com (subscription required)

Reprinted with permission from the November 21, 2025 edition of "The AmLaw Litigation Daily" © 2025 ALM Global Properties, LLC. All rights reserved. Further duplication without permission is prohibited, contact 877-256-2472 or asset-and-logo-licensing@alm.com.

Related People

Miguel A. Estrada

Theodore J. Boutrous Jr.

Katie Townsend

Michael H. Dore

Sophia Brill

Eric Brooks

Connor P. Mui

Ellie Schwietering

Tate Rosenblatt

Related Capabilities

Litigation

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com