The 2025 Capital Pro Bono Honor Roll includes 303 Gibson Dunn members of the D.C. Bar who completed at least 50 hours of pro bono work in 2025. Of these, 203 lawyers provided 100+ hours of pro bono service, thereby qualifying for the High Honor Roll.

The Capital Pro Bono Honor Roll recognizes the contributions made by lawyers providing pro bono services to those who cannot afford counsel, as well as to disadvantaged small businesses and community-based nonprofits. In their joint letter to the honorees, Chief Judge Anna Blackburne-Rigsby of the D.C. Court of Appeals and Chief Judge Milton C. Lee, Jr., of the D.C. Superior Court wrote: “Pro bono participation is simply indispensable to the efficient functioning of our civil justice system. ... Your dedication of time, expertise, and resources to individuals and communities who would otherwise go without legal representation reflects the highest ideals of the legal profession.”
