GIBSON DUNN

Advised TGS on Sale of Its North American Well Data Products Business to Enverus

Firm News | July 8, 2026

Gibson Dunn advised TGS, a leading provider of energy data and intelligence, on the sale of its North American well data products business to Enverus, Inc.

The firm's corporate team advising TGS was led by partners Tull Florey and Cynthia Mabry and included associate Mike Sellner. Partner Daniel Angel and associate Andrew Hartman advised on IP aspects, partner Krista Hanvey advised on benefits, and senior counsel Gregory Nelson advised on tax aspects.

Related People

Gregory V. Nelson

Krista P. Hanvey

Andrew Hartman

Daniel Angel

Cynthia M. Mabry

Tull Florey

Related Capabilities

Intellectual Property

Tax

Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits

Technology Transactions

Strategic Sourcing and Commercial Transactions

Capital Markets

Oil and Gas

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com