

Attila Borsos Named to GCR's 40 Under 40 List

Accolades | May 12, 2020

Global Competition Review

Global Competition Review has named Brussels partner Attila Borsos to its 2020 40 under 40 list, which profiles the top young antitrust lawyers in the world. The feature was published on May 12, 2020.

Attila Borsos advises on a broad range of complex competition and antitrust issues, including global merger control and cartel enforcement. He represents clients before the European Commission, national competition authorities in Europe, as well as regulatory authorities worldwide. His experience spans many industry sectors, including consumer goods, chemicals, energy, airline, media and entertainment, insurance, and financial services. In addition, he advises clients on EU State aid, anti-dumping and anti-subsidy investigations and on EU sanctions.

Related People

Attila Borsos

Related Capabilities

Antitrust and Competition