GIBSON DUNN

Best Lawyers in Brazil 2023 Recognizes Two Gibson Dunn Attorneys

Accolades | December 8, 2022

Best Lawyers

Best Lawyers in Brazil 2023 has recognized two Gibson Dunn attorneys as leading lawyers in their respective practice areas: New York partner Tomer Pinkusiewicz – Project Finance and Development Practice; and São Paulo partner Lisa Alfaro – Capital Markets Law and Corporate and M&A Law. The guide was published December 8, 2022. Tomer Pinkusiewicz's practice focuses on the procurement, development, financing and acquisition/disposition of infrastructure-related assets and companies, with substantial experience in Latin America-related transactions, project bonds and infrastructure financings. He has substantial experience in representing infrastructure funds, asset-mangers, industrial participants and private-equity platforms in respect of investments and divestments in the infrastructure sector, with extensive experience and focus on complicated joint-venture arrangements and debt financing arrangements in respect of such assets. Lisa Alfaro advises U.S. and multi-national companies on their most significant and critical matters, including corporate transactions, corporate compliance and investigations. She represents developers, investment banks, private funds, Fortune 100 companies, state owned entities and investors in the U.S. and Brazil. Throughout her career, she has advised clients in milestone cross-border transactions, coordinating and supervising multi-jurisdictional cross disciplinary teams in complex transactions.

Related People

Tomer Pinkusiewicz

Lisa A. Alfaro

Related Capabilities

Projects

Latin America

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com