

Chris Haynes Quoted by Bloomberg

In the Media | July 16, 2026

Partner Chris Haynes was quoted in Bloomberg's "Going Private Goldman's Newest Fund Finance Pitch Turns Dry Powder Into Yield," discussing autonomous driving software company Wayve Technologies completing its first stock auction on the fledgling U.K. market for private securities trading, becoming the first major company to use the innovation to sell shares without undertaking a conventional IPO. "Now we've seen the successful Wayve transaction, I've no doubt we will see others," he said.
