

Connell O'Neill Named in ALB's Super 50 TMT Lawyers 2021

Accolades | August 13, 2021

Asian Legal Business

Asian Legal Business has named Hong Kong partner Connell O'Neill in its inaugural Super 50 TMT Lawyers survey, which highlights the standout practitioners in the technology, media and telecommunications space in Asia. The survey was published on August 12, 2021.

Connell O'Neill advises clients throughout the Asia Pacific region on corporate and commercial transactions with a particular focus on the information technology, media and telecommunications sectors. He regularly advises emerging and established businesses on major transformative transactions in relation to the challenges presented by contemporary laws on the disruptive business models of the future. He has been a key advisor on many major transactions across the APAC region, including in Hong Kong, the Philippines, Thailand, Indonesia and elsewhere, and has provided strategic commercially sensitive advice to clients on a range of complex and emerging topics.

Related People

Connell O'Neill

Related Capabilities

Strategic Sourcing and Commercial Transactions