GIBSON DUNN

Doug Watson, Dan Warner, and Jack Crichton Pen Article for The Banking Law Journal

Article | March 19, 2026

The Banking Law Journal

In their article for The Banking Law Journal [PDF], “United Kingdom’s Supreme Court Opts in Favour of Banks in Upholding Competition Appeal Tribunal’s Refusal to Certify FX Class Action” (April 2026), partner Doug Watson and associates Dan Warner and Jack Crichton explain that future class representatives will need to satisfy the Competition Appeal Tribunal at the certi?cation stage that their proposed claims are suf?ciently strong in order to obtain the bene?t of the opt-out procedure.

Related People

Doug Watson

Dan Warner

Jack Crichton

Related Capabilities

Antitrust and Competition

Class Actions

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com