

Erin Rothfuss Named Among 2020 Women of Influence in Real Estate

Accolades | July 22, 2020

GlobeSt. Real Estate Forum

GlobeSt. Real Estate Forum named San Francisco partner Erin Rothfuss to its Women of Influence 2020, an annual list that features women who “have all made a distinctive mark in commercial real estate.” The list was published on July 22, 2020.

Erin Rothfuss is co-chair of the Gibson Dunn’s Real Estate Department. Her practice encompasses a variety of transactional matters involving lending and structured finance, private equity, workouts and restructurings, loan sales, syndications and participations, and acquisitions and dispositions, with a particular emphasis on real estate. She represents a wide range of clients, including lenders, developers, opportunity funds, joint ventures and a variety of institutional and non-institutional investors. She advises on transactions involving all types of commercial and residential real property, including development property, office buildings, hotels, resorts, shopping centers, multi-family projects and other commercial properties.

Related People

Erin Rothfuss

Related Capabilities

Real Estate