

Gibson Dunn Adds Corporate Partner Cynthia Mabry in Houston

Firm News | August 22, 2022

Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP is pleased to announce that Cynthia M. Mabry has joined the firm as a partner in the Houston office. Mabry, formerly a partner and co-leader of the climate change group at Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, will continue her corporate practice at Gibson Dunn. “We are excited to welcome Cynthia to Gibson Dunn and our growing Houston office,” said Barbara L. Becker, Chair and Managing Partner of Gibson Dunn. “Cynthia’s broad-based experience will complement our corporate platform in Texas and our global energy and ESG practices.” “Cynthia is an excellent addition to our Houston office,” said Hillary H. Holmes, partner and Co-Chair of the firm’s Capital Markets Practice Group. “She is a dynamic, versatile and high-energy corporate attorney who will be a valuable addition to our elite capital markets and governance practices. In addition, her deep experience counselling on emerging ESG issues will prove invaluable to our clients.” “I’m delighted to be joining the team at Gibson Dunn,” said Mabry. “Gibson Dunn’s corporate platform and its tremendous culture of collaboration and client service are second to none. I look forward to working alongside such a talented and amazing group of colleagues and tapping into all that Gibson Dunn offers as I continue to grow my practice.” About Cynthia M. Mabry Mabry focuses her practice on advising public and private entities, investors and underwriters in capital markets and finance transactions, including offerings of equity and debt securities. She also provides counsel on joint ventures, corporate governance and compliance matters, including advising clients on governance structures and legal issues related to climate change and ESG. Mabry graduated cum laude from the University of Houston Law Center.

Related People

Cynthia M. Mabry

Related Capabilities

Capital Markets