GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Advised Ad Hoc Group of Lenders in City Brewing's Strategic Debt Reduction and Investment Transaction

Firm News | August 27, 2025

Gibson Dunn advised an ad hoc group of lenders in connection with City Brewing Company LLC's fully consensual strategic transaction to reduce its debt and secure new capital investment. As part of the transaction, ownership of the company was transferred to a group of existing lenders. Led by partners Scott Greenberg, Keith Martorana, and Stephen Silverman, our team included partners Steven Domanowski and Ryan Kim; of counsel Christina Brown and Francis Petrie; and associates Katharine Scott, Matt Rowe, and Melody Karmana. Partner Jin Hee Kim and of counsel Ryan Searfoorce advised on finance; partner Edward Wei advised on tax.

Related People

Scott J. Greenberg

Keith R. Martorana

Stephen D. Silverman

Steven A. Domanowski

Ryan Kim

Christina M. Brown

Melody Karmana

Jin Hee Kim

Ryan D. Searfoorce

Edward S. Wei

Related Capabilities

Business Restructuring and Reorganization

Finance

Tax

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com