GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Advised Aldaron on Final Close of Aldaron Fund I at Hard Cap With More Than $950 Million in Total Capital Commitments

Firm News | November 9, 2026

Gibson Dunn advised Aldaron, a pioneer in transformation equity, on the final close of its oversubscribed Aldaron Fund I at its hard cap with more than $950 million in total capital commitments to Aldaron Fund I and its affiliated co-investment vehicles.

The Gibson Dunn corporate team was led by partner A.J. Frey and included associates Jordan Alston, Tim Dragonette, Thomas Franck, Aidan McNamara, and Curtis Vella. Of counsel Kate Long and associate Galya Savir advised on tax aspects. Partner Michael Collins advised on benefits. Partner Marian Fowler advised on regulatory aspects.

Related People

A.J. Frey

Jordan Alston

Tim Dragonette

Thomas W. Franck

Aidan McNamara

Curtis B. Vella

Kate Long

Galya Savir

Michael Collins

Marian Fowler

Related Capabilities

Investment Funds

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com