GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Advised Amazon on Concurrent Offerings of Over $52 Billion of Notes, Comprising $37 Billion USD-Denominated Notes and €14.5 Billion Euro-Denominated Notes

Firm News | March 18, 2026

Gibson Dunn advised Amazon in its concurrent SEC-registered offerings of over $52 billion of notes, comprising its offering of $37 billion USD-denominated notes and its inaugural offering of €14.5 billion Euro-denominated notes.

Our team included partners Andrew Fabens and Stewart McDowell and associates Lawrence Lee, Alan Williams, and Storey Wanglee. Partner Chris Haynes and of counsel Thomas Barker advised on EU and U.K. matters. Partners Edward Wei and Jennifer Sabin and of counsel Kate Long advised on U.S. tax matters. Partner Sandy Bhogal and of counsel Bridget English advised on U.K. tax matters.

Related People

Andrew L. Fabens

Stewart McDowell

Lawrence Lee

Alan Williams

Storey L. Wanglee

Chris Haynes

Thomas D. Barker

Edward S. Wei

Jennifer L. Sabin

Kate Long

Sandy Bhogal

Bridget English

Related Capabilities

Capital Markets

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com