GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Advised Blue Earth Capital on Series B Funding Round for GeologicAl

Firm News | July 18, 2025

Gibson Dunn advised Blue Earth Capital on the $44 million Series B funding round of GeologicAl, a leader in applying advanced Al and high-resolution decision engineering to the critical minerals mining industry.

The Gibson Dunn corporate team was led by partner Federico Fruhbeck and associate Mark Goldman and included associates Sam Shapiro and Hannah Gonzalez. Associates Nate Hancock and Yaz Kaveh advised on IP aspects.

Related People

Federico Fruhbeck Jr.

Mark Goldman

Sam Shapiro

Hannah Gonzalez

Nate S. Hancock

Yaz Kaveh