

Gibson Dunn Advised Brookfield on €1.2 Billion Sale of “Livensa” Portfolio

Firm News | June 20, 2025

Gibson Dunn advised Brookfield on the €1.2 billion sale of its “Livensa” branded portfolio, comprising 22 purpose-built student accommodation properties in Spain and Portugal, to the Canada Pension Plan Investment Board.

Our real estate team was led by partners Jeremy Kenley and Patrick Hennessy and included of counsel Richard Sen. Of counsel Manjinder Tiwana and associates Ciarán Deeny and Willem van Hootegem advised on M&A and private equity matters; partner Rob Carr and associate Chara Sherwood advised on finance matters; and partner Sandy Bhogal, of counsel Bridget English, and associates Jason Richards and Aleksandar Genov advised on tax matters.

Related People

Patrick Hennessy

Richard B. Sen

Manjinder Tiwana

Ciarán Deeny

Willem van Hootegem

Rob Carr

Chara Sherwood

Sandy Bhogal

Bridget English

Jason Richards

Aleksandar R. Genov

Related Capabilities

Mergers and Acquisitions

Real Estate