

Gibson Dunn Advised Dextra Partners as Lead Investor in Continuation Vehicle for Ethos

Firm News | February 4, 2026

Gibson Dunn advised Dextra Partners, a multi-strategy private equity firm focused on the middle market, as lead investor in a continuation vehicle for Ethos, a St. Petersburg, Florida-based provider of tech-enabled insurance claims investigation and medical management solutions. The continuation vehicle is managed by Carousel Capital, with Carousel Capital Partners VI providing a significant investment alongside Dextra Partners.

Our corporate team was led by partner A.J. Frey and included partners Sean McFarlane and Edward Sopher and associates Nicolette Fata and Aidan McNamara. Partner Daniel Zygielbaum and associate Galya Savir advised on tax. Partner Bradley Smith advised on antitrust.
