Gibson Dunn Advised EQT’s Scaleup Europe Fund on Lead Investment in Tandem Health’s Series B Financing

Firm News | September 18, 2026

Gibson Dunn advised the Scaleup Europe Fund, managed by EQT, in connection with its lead investment in Tandem Health AB's Series B financing. Founded in Stockholm, Tandem Health is a European healthtech company whose AI medical assistant is used by more than 10,000 care organizations across 14 European markets. The investment marks the Scaleup Europe Fund's first investment in healthcare AI. Existing investors Kinnevik, Northzone, Amino Collective, and Visionaries also participated in the round.

The Scaleup Europe Fund, managed by EQT, is an investment fund backing ambitious European technology companies with the potential to become global leaders.

The Gibson Dunn team was led by London corporate partners Wim De Vlieger and Isabel Berger and included associates Romain Tourenne, Caitlin Smith, and Georg Bilek on corporate matters. Partners James Cox and Robbie Sinclair and associates Georgia Derbyshire and Katie Hall advised on employment; partner Lore Leitner and associates Elisa Wong, Ioana Burtea, and Phoebe Rowson-Stevens advised on intellectual property, data protection, and AI; of counsel Marija Bra?kovi? and associate Ksenija Radonjic advised on anti-bribery, corruption, and anti-money laundering; and associate Irene Polieri advised on sanctions.
