Gibson Dunn Advised Hahn & Company in the Closing of the Largest-Ever GP-Led Secondary Transaction in Asia

Firm News | August 15, 2022

Gibson Dunn advised Hahn & Company, a leading South Korea-based private equity firm, in the closing of the largest-ever GP-led secondary transaction in Asia. The transaction's total size is approximately $1.5 billion and involved the formation of a continuation fund for Ssangyong C&E, an industry-leading Korean cement manufacturer that is actively expanding into waste management businesses. The Gibson Dunn team was led by Albert Cho and Brian Schwarzwalder and included Xuanyi Liu, Jae Hong, Keira Su, Kathy Wen and Amanda Ng. Loren Lembo and Rebecca Friedman advised on tax aspects, Arthur Long advised on BHCA aspects, and Michael Collins advised on ERISA aspects.
