

Gibson Dunn Advised KKR on Saviynt's $700 Million Growth Equity Financing at Approximately $3 Billion Valuation

Firm News | December 9, 2025

Gibson Dunn advised KKR on Saviynt's $700 million Growth Equity Financing at a valuation of approximately $3 billion. Saviynt is a leading identity security company whose AI-powered platform manages, secures, and governs access for human, non-human, and AI agent identities across an organization's applications, data, and infrastructure.

Our corporate team was led by partners Christopher Harding and Abtin Jalali and included of counsel Soren Kreider and associate Sam Shapiro.

Partners Christian Riis-Madsen, Kristen Limarzi, and Brad Smith and associate Jonas Jousma advised on antitrust aspects; partner Matt Donnelly and associate Yara Mansour on tax; partner Meghan Hungate and associate Andrew Hartman on IP; partner Cassandra Gaedt-Scheckter and associate Sarah Scharf on data privacy; and partners Mike Collins and James Cox on benefits.

Related People

Christopher R. Harding

Abtin Jalali

Soren Kreider

Sam Shapiro

Christian Riis-Madsen

Kristen C. Limarzi

Bradley P. Smith

Jonas L. Jousma

Matt Donnelly

Yara Mansour

Meghan M. Hungate

Andrew Hartman

Cassandra L. Gaedt-Scheckter

Sarah Scharf

Michael Collins

James Cox

Related Capabilities

Private Equity