

Gibson Dunn Advised Liberty Hall Capital Partners on Paxia Acquisition

Firm News | July 10, 2025

Gibson Dunn advised Liberty Hall Capital Partners on its acquisition of Paxia, Inc., which provides airlines with cloud-based catering and onboard-services management solutions that include galley planning, service scheduling, meal ordering, inventory control, and invoice reconciliation. Our corporate team was led by partners John Pollack and Chris Harding and of counsel David Sandyk and included associates Kiel Sauerman and Uyen Tu. Partners A.J. Frey and Michael Saliba, of counsel John Kim, and associates Curtis Vella, Sam Stender, James Sullivan, and Virinchi Sindhwani advised on equity financing. Partner Aaron Adams, of counsel Tom Brower, and associates Victoria Jones Yilmaz and Ruoqi Wei advised on debt financing. Partner Kathryn Kelly and associate Doug Bresnick advised on tax aspects, and partner Michael Collins and associate Ashley Romanias advised on benefits.

Related People

John M. Pollack
Christopher R. Harding
David Sandyk
Kiel Sauerman
Uyen Tu
A.J. Frey
Michael D. Saliba
John Kim
Curtis B. Vella
Sam Stender
James Sullivan
Virinchi Sindhwani
Aaron F. Adams
Tom Brower
Victoria E. Jones Yilmaz
Ruoqi Wei
Kathryn A. Kelly
Michael Collins

Related Capabilities

Private Equity

Mergers and Acquisitions

Finance

Tax

Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits