

Gibson Dunn Advised Mediawan on Partnership With Reese Witherspoon to Acquire Hello Sunshine

Firm News | October 14, 2026

Gibson Dunn advised the major French media conglomerate and independent TV/film studio Mediawan on its partnership with Reese Witherspoon to acquire Hello Sunshine, home to TV series such as Big Little Lies, The Morning Show, and Daisy Jones & The Six as well as Reese's Book Club.

The Gibson Dunn corporate team was led by partner Sarah Graham and included associates Elise Widerlite, Blaine Roth, Julia Alonzo, and Emily Harvey. Partner Steve Tsoneff advised on entertainment aspects. Partner Dora Arash and associate Joseph Marcus advised on tax aspects. Partner Sean Feller and associate Heather Monte advised on benefits.

Related People

Sarah L. Graham

Elise C. Widerlite

Blaine Roth

Julia K. Alonzo

Emily Harvey

Steve Tsoneff

Dora R. Arash

Sean C. Feller

Heather Monte

Related Capabilities

Media, Entertainment, and Technology

Mergers and Acquisitions