

Gibson Dunn Advised Rehlko Energy on Sale of Curtis Instruments Business to Parker Hannifin for Approximately $1 Billion

Firm News | September 19, 2025

Gibson Dunn advised Rehlko Energy, a global leader in energy resilience, on the sale of its Curtis Instruments business to Parker Hannifin Corporation, the global leader in motion and control technologies, for approximately $1 billion. Our corporate team was led by partners Matthew B. Dubeck and Christopher R. Harding and included associates Kiel Sauerman, Uyen Tu, and Héctor González Medina. Partner Dora R. Arash advised on tax; partner Sean C. Feller advised on benefits; partner Michael Farhang advised on compliance; partner Meghan M. Hungate advised on intellectual property; partners Ahmed Baladi and Cassandra L. Gaedt-Sheckter advised on data privacy; partner Kari Krusmark advised on commercial transactions; partner Jesse Shapiro advised on real estate; partner Michael K. Murphy advised on environmental aspects; and partner Christopher T. Timura advised on international trade.

Related People

Matthew B. Dubeck

Christopher R. Harding

Kiel Sauerman

Uyen Tu

Héctor González Medina

Dora R. Arash

Sean C. Feller

Michael Farhang

Meghan M. Hungate

Ahmed Baladi

Cassandra L. Gaedt-Sheckter

Jesse Shapiro

Michael K. Murphy

Christopher T. Timura

Related Capabilities

Private Equity

Tax

Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits

Anti-Corruption & FCPA

Intellectual Property

Privacy, Cybersecurity, and Data Innovation

GIBSON DUNN

Strategic Sourcing and Commercial Transactions

Real Estate

Environmental Litigation and Mass Tort

International Trade Advisory and Enforcement