

Gibson Dunn Advises AT&T on U.S. Joint Venture with Global Infrastructure Partners and Canada Pension Plan Investment Board

Firm News | October 6, 2026

Gibson Dunn is advising AT&T on its new U.S. joint venture with Global Infrastructure Partners, a part of BlackRock, and the Canada Pension Plan Investment Board to bring fiber to more homes across the country.

The firm's corporate team is led by partners Robert Little and Joe Orien and includes associates William Altabef, Joshua Barringer, and Tara Adhikari. Partners Pamela Lawrence Endreny, Eric Sloan, and James Jennings and associate Duncan Hamilton are advising on tax aspects. Partner Daniel Angel is advising on IP aspects. Partner Krista Hanvey and of counsel John Curran are advising on benefits. Of counsel Ruben Almaraz is advising on financing aspects.

Related People

Robert B. Little

Joe Orien

William B. Altabef

Joshua Barringer

Tara Adhikari

Pamela Lawrence Endreny

Eric B. Sloan

James Jennings

Duncan J. Hamilton

Daniel Angel

Krista P. Hanvey

John Curran

Ruben Almaraz

Related Capabilities

Mergers and Acquisitions