GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Advises CECO Environmental on $2.2 Billion Strategic Combination with Thermon Group

Firm News | February 24, 2026

Gibson Dunn is advising CECO Environmental Corp. on its $2.2 billion strategic combination with Thermon Group Holdings, Inc.

Our corporate team is led by partners Jonathan Whalen and Jeffrey Chapman and includes of counsel Jonathan Sapp and associates Adri Langemeier, Nathan Halaney, Minae Seog, and Mason F. Ye. Partner Rachel Kleinberg and associate Emily Risher Brooks are advising on tax aspects; partners Gina Hancock and Krista Hanvey and associate Tehute Habte are advising on benefits. Partner Rachel Levick and associates Taylor Cathleen Amato and Jerry Blake Blevins are advising on environmental aspects. Partner Daniel Angel and associate Andrew Hartman are advising on IP aspects.

Related People

Jonathan Whalen

Jeffrey A. Chapman

Adri Langemeier

Nathan Halaney

Minae Seog

Mason F Ye

Rachel D. Kleinberg

Emily Risher Brooks

Gina Hancock

Krista P. Hanvey

Tehute Habte

Rachel Levick

Jerry Blake Blevins

Daniel Angel

Andrew Hartman

Related Capabilities

Mergers and Acquisitions

Tax

Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits

Environmental

Intellectual Property

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com