

Gibson Dunn Advises Cotiviti on its Acquisition of Edifecs

Firm News | February 10, 2025

Gibson Dunn is advising Cotiviti, a portfolio company of Veritas Capital and KKR and a leader in data-driven healthcare solutions, on its acquisition of Edifecs, a portfolio company of Francisco Partners and TA Associates. The acquisition will enhance connectivity between payers and providers, enable increased collaboration in the delivery of care, and accelerate deployment of value-added solutions in the healthcare system.

The Gibson Dunn corporate team is led by partners John Pollack and Chris Harding and includes of counsel John Kim and associates Ashley Whittington, Andrew Abell and Mona Kalantar. Partner Matt Donnelly is advising on tax aspects, and partner Michael Collins is advising on benefits. Partner Meghan Hungate is advising on IP aspects, and partner Cassandra Gaedt-Sheckter is advising on data privacy aspects.
