

Gibson Dunn Advises Crestview Partners on Acquisition of Smyth Companies

Firm News | March 6, 2025

Gibson Dunn advised Crestview Partners on its acquisition of Smyth Companies, a premier, full-service provider of pressure sensitive labels, shrink sleeves, in-mold labels, glue-applied labels, and flexible packaging, from Novacap.

The Gibson Dunn corporate team was led by partner Alexander Fine and included of counsel Daisy Wu and associate Kyle Ezring. Partner Darius Mehraban, of counsel Jason Durschlag, and associate Matthew Ross advised on financing. Partner Matt Donnelly and associate Hayden Theis advised on tax aspects, and partner Michael Collins advised on benefits.

Partner Meghan Hungate and associates Sarah Scharf and Mona Mosavi advised on IP and data privacy aspects. Partner Christopher Timura and associates Chris Mullen and Karsten Ball advised on international trade aspects. Partner Michael Murphy and associate Phil Washburn advised on environmental aspects. Partner Kimberly Schlanger and associate To Nhu Huynh advised on real estate aspects.

Related People

Alexander D. Fine

Kyle Ezring

Darius Mehraban

Matthew Ross

Matt Donnelly

Michael Collins

Meghan M. Hungate

Sarah Scharf

Mona Mosavi

Christopher T. Timura

Chris R. Mullen

Karsten Ball

Michael K. Murphy

Kimberly E. Schlanger

To Nhu Huynh

Related Capabilities

Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits

Finance

Intellectual Property

International Trade Advisory and Enforcement

Private Equity

Real Estate

Tax