

Gibson Dunn Advises EQT on Minority Growth Investment in Dwelly

Firm News | July 29, 2026

Gibson Dunn advised global investment firm EQT on its minority growth investment in Dwelly, an AI operating system for UK lettings agencies. EQT acted as lead investor in the round.

The firm's London corporate team was led by partners Wim De Vlieger and Isabel Berger with support from of counsel Gisele Zouein and associates Alex Eldredge and Willem van Hootegem. Partners Ben Fryer and Jennifer Sabin and associate Alex Genov advised on tax matters. Partner Lore Leitner and associate Libby Pica advised on IP/IT matters. Partner Michelle Kirschner, of counsel Martin Coombes, and associate Saad Khan advised on financial regulation matters. Associate Georgia Derbyshire advised on employment matters.

Related People

Wim De Vlieger

Isabel Berger

Gisele Zouein

Alex Eldredge

Willem van Hootegem

Benjamin J. Fryer

Jennifer L. Sabin

Aleksandar R. Genov

Lore Leitner

Libby Pica

Michelle M. Kirschner

Martin Coombes

Saad Khan

Georgia Derbyshire

Related Capabilities

Private Equity