

Gibson Dunn Advises GIC on its Investment in Septeo Group

Firm News | November 25, 2024

Gibson Dunn advised GIC on its investment in Septeo, a prominent French software group serving the notaries, legal, hospitality, and real estate markets. The transaction values Septeo at more than €3 billion and includes an investment from Téthys Invest, the investment holding company of the Bettencourt-Meyers family. Closing is subject to customary regulatory approvals. The Gibson Dunn team advising GIC was led by partners Till Lefranc and Ariel Harroch and included associate Mitasha Chandok. The team also included associate Alison Pereira Martins (Corporate); partner Jérôme Delaurière (Tax); partner Vera Lukic and associate Clémence Pugnet (IP/IT/Data Protection/Cybersecurity); partner Nataline Fleury and associates Rym Gouizi and Noémie Massé (Employment); partner Stéphane Frank, of counsel Michelle Weinbaum and associate François Vanherck (Antitrust); partner Michelle Kirschner and associates Marija Bračkovič, Amy Cooke, Irene Polieri and Martin Coombes (Compliance and Regulatory).

Related People

Till Lefranc

Ariel Harroch

Alison Pereira Martins

Jérôme Delaurière

Vera Lukic

Nataline Fleury

Noémie Massé

Michelle M. Kirschner

Marija Bračkovič

Amy Cooke

Irene Polieri

Martin Coombes

Related Capabilities

Private Equity

Tax

Privacy, Cybersecurity, and Data Innovation

Labor and Employment

Antitrust and Competition

Financial Regulatory