GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Advises KKR and NetSPI on NetSPI’s Merger with Synack

Firm News | September 3, 2026

Gibson Dunn is advising KKR and NetSPI on NetSPI’s merger with Synack to form the industry’s leading offensive cybersecurity platform.

The firm’s corporate team is led by partner Abtin Jalali and of counsel Soren Kreider and includes associates Tully Moyer, Chris Ayers, Andy Strader, and Francesca Faugno. Partner Matt Donnelly and of counsel Ryan Rott are advising on tax aspects. Partner Meghan Hungate and associates Libby Pica and Stanton Burke are advising on IP and data privacy aspects. Partner Kate Napalkova and associates Lucy Hong and Kayoko Fong are advising on benefits and executive compensation aspects. Partners Bradley Smith, Valeri Bozhikov, and Kristen Limarzi are advising on antitrust aspects. Partner Lindsay Paulin and associate Sarah-Jane Lorenzo are advising on government contracts aspects. Partner Stewart McDowell is advising on capital markets aspects.

Read more here.

Related People

Abtin Jalali

Soren Kreider

Tully Moyer

Chris Ayers

Andy Strader

Ryan Rott

Meghan M. Hungate

Stanton Burke

Ekaterina (Kate) Napalkova

Lucy Hong

Kayoko Fong

Bradley P. Smith

Valeri Bozhikov

Kristen C. Limarzi

Lindsay M. Paulin

Sarah-Jane Lorenzo

Stewart McDowell

Related Capabilities

Mergers and Acquisitions

Private Equity

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com