

Gibson Dunn Advises Madison River Capital on Closing of Inaugural Fund at $370 Million

Firm News | February 19, 2025

Gibson Dunn advised Madison River Capital on the final close of its first institutional fund, Madison River Capital Fund I, with over $370 million of capital commitments. Madison River Capital was established in 2022 following its spin out from Jefferson River Capital, the family office of Tony James, the former President and Chief Operating Officer of Blackstone. The Gibson Dunn investment funds team was led by partners A.J. Frey and Edward Sopher and included associates Kameron Mitchell, Curtis Vella, and Fiona Xin. Partner Brian Kniesly and associate Annie Lin advised on tax aspects. Partner Michael Collins advised on benefits. Partner Kevin Bettsteller and of counsel Gregory Merz advised on regulatory aspects.

Related People

A.J. Frey

Edward Sopher

Kameron B. Mitchell

Curtis B. Vella

Fiona Xin

Brian W. Kniesly

Michael Collins

Kevin Bettsteller

Gregory Merz

Related Capabilities

Investment Funds

Tax

Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits