

Gibson Dunn Advises Oaktree Capital Management on Sale of Majority Stake in OEG Energy Group

Firm News | March 19, 2025

Gibson Dunn has advised funds managed by Oaktree Capital Management, L.P., and other investors in connection with the sale of a majority controlling stake in the energy solutions business OEG Energy Group to funds managed by Apollo affiliates. The transaction implies a headline valuation of more than $1 billion for OEG. The London corporate team was led by partner Will Summers and of counsel Michael Skouras and included associates Valeriya Anopchenko, Oliver Hill, and Lena Tarrin. Partner Ben Fryer and associate Jason Richards advised on tax aspects, and partner David Irvine and associate Patrick Garrett advised on debt finance aspects. Partner Attila Borsos and associate Tyron Willey advised on antitrust aspects.
