

Gibson Dunn Advises Serent Capital and Arbiter on Sale of Majority Stake in Arbiter to Accel-KKR

Firm News | September 24, 2025

Gibson Dunn advised Serent Capital and Arbiter, a trusted provider of athletic and school operations management software, on the sale of a majority stake in Arbiter to Accel-KKR.

Led by partner Abtin Jalali, our corporate team included associates Michael Andrews, Chris Ayers, and Jasmine Vitug. Partner Sean Feller and associate Akiva Reich advised on benefits; partner Daniel Angel advised on IP and data privacy aspects.

Related People

Abtin Jalali

Chris Ayers

Jasmine L. Vitug

Sean C. Feller

Akiva Reich

Daniel Angel

Related Capabilities

Mergers and Acquisitions

Private Equity