Gibson Dunn Advises Strategic Value Partners on the Acquisition and Financing of Blanchardstown Shopping Centre

Firm News | November 25, 2024

Gibson Dunn has advised Strategic Value Partners (SVP) on the signing of its acquisition and financing of Blanchardstown Shopping Centre, a prime retail and leisure destination in Ireland. Blanchardstown Centre is a major retail complex in north-west Dublin, covering 1.2 million square feet and housing over 180 shops and restaurants. With an annual footfall of approximately 17 million visitors and 5,500 parking spaces, it is one of Ireland's leading shopping destinations. The Gibson Dunn team was led by corporate partner Claibourne Harrison and included associates Emily Mattley and Paavni Anand. Partner Rob Carr and associates Christina Olliver, Chara Sherwood and Hannah Newhall advised on finance aspects.
