

Gibson Dunn Advises Underwriters on Fermi's $431.25 Million Convertible Senior Notes Offering and Related Capped Call

Firm News | July 15, 2026

Gibson Dunn is advising the underwriters on Fermi Inc.'s offering of $431.25 million of convertible senior notes and related capped call.

The Gibson Dunn corporate team includes partners Stewart McDowell and Hillary Holmes, of counsel Adam Lapidus, and associates Caroline Bakewell and Daniel Quesenberry. Partner Krista Hanvey is advising on benefits. Partners Brian Kniesly and Jennifer Sabin and of counsel Kate Long are advising on tax aspects. Partner Sydney Scott is advising on litigation aspects. Partner Chris Haynes and associate Libby Sycamore are advising on UK aspects. Partner Adam Whitehouse and associate Jess Rollinson are advising on energy and power aspects.

Related People

Stewart McDowell

Hillary H. Holmes

Adam Lapidus

Caroline Bakewell

Daniel Quesenberry

Krista P. Hanvey

Brian W. Kniesly

Jennifer L. Sabin

Kate Long

Sydney Scott

Chris Haynes

Libby Sycamore

Adam Whitehouse

Jess Rollinson

Related Capabilities

Capital Markets

Tax

Power and Renewables

Energy and Infrastructure