Gibson Dunn is once again one of the Fearsome Foursome — the four law firms that corporate counsel and other legal decision-makers say they most dread having to face off against in litigation, according to The BTI Consulting Group's BTI Litigation Outlook 2026 report.

“We are part of the Fearsome Foursome because we win,” says partner Helgi Walker, Co-Chair of the firm's global Litigation Practice Group, “and we win because we work harder, think smarter, strategize more creatively, and dig deeper than our peers. When we show up in a case for our clients, our opponents know the fight just got tougher and the stakes higher.”

The Litigation Outlook report is based on surveys and interviews with general counsel and other legal decision-makers at large organizations with $1 billion or more in revenue.

Gibson Dunn is home to the most preeminent trial practice in the world. We lead the market in trial victories across industries, practices and venues. Clients call on us to handle their most consequential and bet-the-company matters. We win cases that change our world and make a major difference for our economy and society. Our winning track record is unparalleled. When the stakes are highest and the evidentiary and legal challenges appear insurmountable, clients turn to Gibson Dunn to take control and win.
